

Works notification

Service works Parkville Precinct

From 27 January 2021 for up to three weeks

Service works are required on Elizabeth Street, Haymarket Roundabout and Pelham Street to provide a new service connection in the precinct.

What we are doing

- Non-destructive digging (NDD), mechanical excavation and associated works to expose existing underground services
- Relining conduits
- Reinstatement of road and footpath surfaces.

What to be aware of

- Traffic management and signage will be in place to safely direct vehicles, cyclists, and pedestrians around the work area

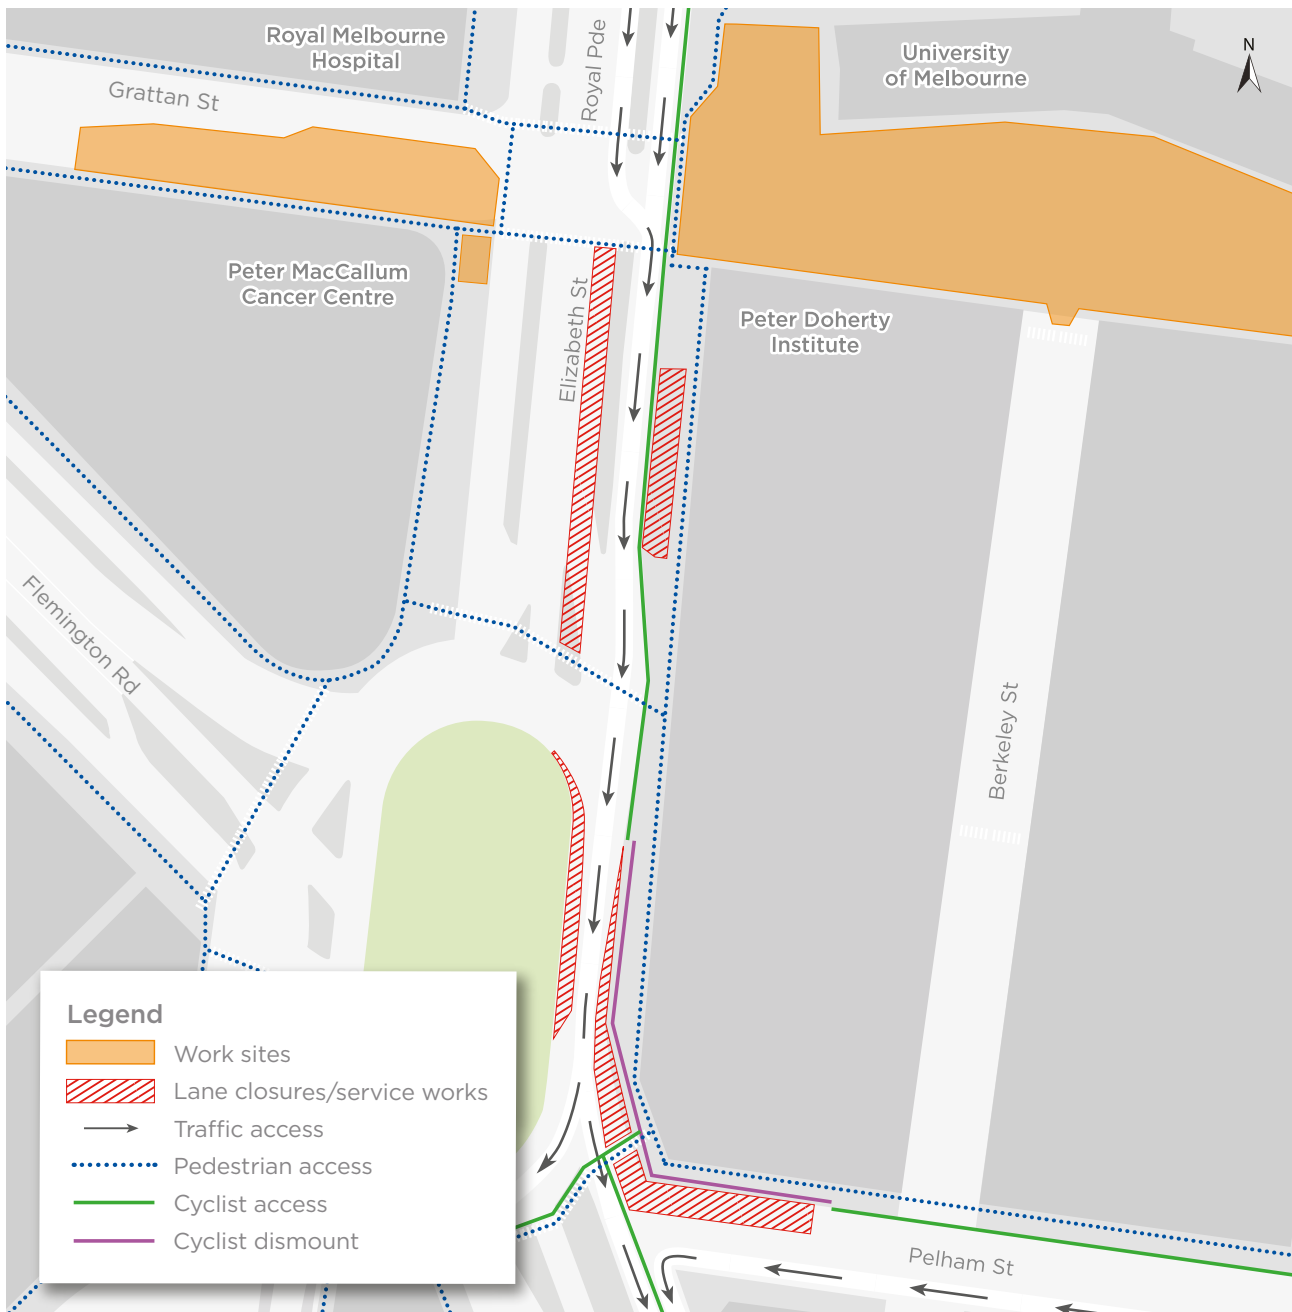

During working hours, lane closures will be in place on:

- Elizabeth Street southbound centre lane from Grattan Street to Haymarket Roundabout
- Haymarket Roundabout southbound lanes. Access will be maintained for vehicles traveling southbound through the roundabout
- Pelham Street eastbound between Haymarket and Berkeley Street (refer to map)
- Access will be maintained to loading bays on Elizabeth Street, adjacent to the Peter Doherty Institute

- Local diversions will be in place and access maintained for residents
- There will be no impact to public transport services
- Cyclists travelling eastbound on Pelham Street from Haymarket Roundabout are required to dismount and walk their bikes on the footpath (refer to map)
- Activities are scheduled out of hours to minimise impacts to traffic, pedestrians and public transport services
- There are no anticipated interruptions to services during these works
- These works are expected to generate low to high levels of noise depending on the work activity.

When

- 7pm to 5am, Monday to Sunday from Wednesday 27 January 2021 for up to three weeks.
